Copy of a letter in the University Library at Leipzig addressed to
 "President Clap :"

PHILADELPHIA, November 28, 1751.

Sir :

I am heartily sorry for your Disappointment in Letort; I would not have imagin'd he would have behav'd
 so imprudently, and let so very profitable a Jobb slip thro' his Fingers. I have done with him.

I hope you will be able to procure a Subscription to furnish your College with a compleat Apparatus for Natural Philosophy. If you are like to succeed I will contribute the Electrical Part.

Borver has lain ever since in Mr.
 Parker's Hands at New York. He desires you would order one of your Boatmen to call for it.

We had the Pleasure of a little of Mr.
 Whittelsey's Company a few Days since.
 I hope he will get well home.

My Respects to all Friends. Please to accept the enclos'd from, Dr Sir,

Your obliged huml

Servt

The report of the Treasurer was read, giving in detail the receipts and expenditures, and, in accordance with the laws, was referred to the Finance Committee.

The Publication Committee reported their proceedings during the year and offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Publication Committee recommend to the Society that the Board of Secretaries shall have the power to dispose, by gift or sale, of the Proceedings of the Society in excess of twenty numbers each, in compliance with applications from individuals or Societies.

Resolved, That the Society be recommended to direct the publication of obituary notices hereafter, separate from the Proceedings or Transactions of the Society.

On motion, duly seconded, the recommendations of the Publication Committee were approved.

The special Committee on Collations made a final report and asked discharge, which was granted.

The President announced the appointment of Hon. Craig Biddle and Hon. Mayer Sulzberger to fill vacancies in the Henry M. Phillips Prize Essay Fund Committee.

The following papers were read by titles and referred to the Secretaries:

"The Hypenoid Moths and Allied Groups," by A. Radcliffe Grote, A.M.

Curator Morris offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Curators be authorized, in accordance with the policy heretofore adopted, to deposit at the Pennsylvania Museum and School of Industrial Art, such medals and casts as are at present in the museum of the Society, under the same conditions as are attached to our collection of coins, medals and casts now deposited at the Pennsylvania Museum, and to take proper receipt for them.

Dr. Persifer Frazer offered the following resolutions, which, on motion duly seconded, were unanimously approved:

WHEREAS, Chapter II, Section 5, of the Laws of the American Philosophical Society ordains that "no one shall be esteemed a qualified voter at the election who has not subscribed the Laws," etc., etc.; and,

WHEREAS, The book in which the signatures of members of the Society have been inscribed contains the old but not the now existing Laws of the Society; and,

WHEREAS, It would entail many difficulties and inconveniences to commence a new list of signatures after every change in the Laws or to attach every change to the old book now in use. Therefore,

Resolved, That this Society regards the affixing of a signature to the pages devoted to that purpose in the present book to be the performance of the duty required above, and that this act be duly declared to be "subscribing to the Laws of the Society" in force at the time of such act.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution, duly attested by the Secretaries, be attached to the book containing the signatures.

Mr. McKean raised the question as to whether attendance at an annual election was an attendance at a meeting within the meaning of the laws as to qualification for voting at a subsequent annual election.

After discussion by Gen. Wistar, Prof. Houston, Mr. Price and others, the following resolutions were offered by Mr. Price, duly seconded, and unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That attendance and voting at any annual election held by the Society shall not be considered as a qualification for voting at the next annual election.

Resolved, That the judges of the election be informed by the Secretary of the adoption of the above resolution.

After reading the rough minutes, the Society was adjourned by the President.
